

HIT - HEALTH INFORMATION TECHNOLOGY

HIT 180 - Health Information Management

Units: 3

Students who wish to work in the healthcare industry must show skills as pertaining to the collection, storage and safety of patient's information. Students will learn the basics of Information Technology to accomplish this to include computers, software, servers and networking.

Transferability: May not transfer towards an NSHE bachelor's degree

Term Offered: Spring and Fall