ANTHROPOLOGY, AA

Program Code: Anthropology-AA
This program can be completed 100% online.
Program Description and Career Map

The Associate of Arts, Anthropology is designed for students seeking careers in anthropology or related fields. The degree requirements include general education requirements to gain a breadth of knowledge in a wide array of disciplines. Students will also specialize in theoretical, methodological, and topical concerns of anthropology. This course of study is designed as a university transfer degree or can be tailored for those wishing an emphasis in applied anthropology to gain the practical knowledge to enter the workforce in entry level positions. The Associate of Arts degree is fully accepted at any four-year institution in the NSHE system and is fully transferable to most four-year schools in the nation.

Program Outcomes

Students completing the degree will:

PSLO1: Understand the theories and methods used by anthropologists.

PSLO2: Discuss core concepts of the discipline including stewardship of cultural heritage, the differences between ethnocentrism and cultural relativism, and why anthropologists assert that race is a social construct.

PSLO3: Conduct research, data analysis, and report writing on specific topics within anthropology.

Transfer Agreements

AA/AS degrees are designed for students who plan to transfer to a four-year college or university. General information about general transfer agreements can be found on the Academic Advisement website (https://www.tmcc.edu/advisement/transfer-students/transfer-agreements/). Students who intend to transfer to another college or university should speak with a TMCC Academic Advisor and consult with that institution. The transfer institution determines how TMCC courses will transfer. TMCC has agreements with the following institutions towards a bachelor's degree in the same or similar discipline.

- University of Nevada, Reno (https://www.unr.edu/admissions/transfer/credits/transfer-agreements/)
